Takes It Upon Himself To Ar range Lane Itinerary, Makes Mess of It and Is Ignored

HILO, June 13-(Special to The Advertiser) Upon their arrival here Secretary of Interior Lane and party had a distinct surprise for they learned that Governor Pinkham had under-taken to lake their plans into his own hands and had consequently made a mess of it. The next surprise came The next surprise came ments were promptly upset and plans were ignored.

Without consulting either Secretary
Lane or Governor Designate McCarthy, it appears, Governor Pinklists had sent vireless messages to Persident Vicars of the Hilo Board of Trade and that or canization and proceeded on the as-sumption that the Governor was acting in accordance with instructions or at least under authority and had made plans accordingly. The committee on arrangements was consequently disappointed when its arrangements were set

This morning the "Pinkbam Itiger ary' program was diregarded and stend of following out the arran ments that had been made for the tertainment of the party. Sense Lane decided to go to Wainlo look ever the lands there over homesteading of which there has been so much disputation and so many advanced. This he followed upon visit to the Kaiwiki homester in whi he earefully looked over. Beturning Hilo, the party stopped for time only and then started on his Voleano.

Between these trips Secretary found time to deliver a patricte arter to the guardsmen new enemanted her awhiting transportation for and another to the school chi
